At One McKnight Place

Open House at The Gatesworth

Residents of The Gatesworth and their guests celebrated the stunning results of a year-plus long renovation of One McKnight Place at an Open House & Reception on Sun., Jan. 28. The new décor, played out in rich hues of gold, green and deep reds, echoes elegance and comfort, and the redesign of existing spaces created a host of new seating groups that proved their utility during the well-attended Open House. Equally top-drawer was the The Carolbeth Trio, filling the Atrium with jazz just as fabulous as The Gatesworth's new digs.

Rosemary Killmade, Barbara Corley and Lucy Bauman had raves for the renovation results.
